

ЄВС-проект у Чехії

Харківська НГО “Стелла” оголошує пошук волонтера на ЄВС-проект у Чехії, який буде сфокусований на соціальній роботі у молодіжних центрах, з літніми людьми, дітьми та організації різних подій разом з приймаючою організацією.

Дедлайн – 10 квітня.

Детальний опис англійською:

EVS volunteer will do the main activities in the Volunteering Centre and partly also in the area of social work of Fokus Vysocina. As the Volunteering centre assists, contributes and develops particular activities with the NGOs involved in the network of the Centre, EVS volunteer has an opportunity to get to know this network and to be involved in those NGOs where the volunteers merge the intercultural aspect with the active involvement and volunteering support on behalf of the hosting organisation.

The EVS volunteers are involved in following activities: meetings, gathering and educational activities of the local volunteers, administrative work in the Centre, preparation, organisation and evaluation of the events, intercultural and language activities, workshop in the elderly houses, activities with the children, assistance in the sheltered workshops, language activities, regional events developed by the coordinating organisation. The volunteers have the space and support for their individual projects.

Conditions:

Place:	Pelhrimov,	Vysocina	Regiona,	Czech	Republic
Duration:	10	months,	29.08.2016	–	20.06.2017
Age:	18	–		30	years
Expenses:	travelling, accommodation, pocket money, money for food and insurance are covered by the grant of the European Commission.
Hosting	organisation:				FOKUS

VYSOCINA <http://europa.eu/youth/volunteering/organisation/9391..>

Involved countries: France, Spain, Germany, Portugal, Poland, Hungary, Belarus, Ukraine

If interested, please send your CV and motivation letter (no more than 1 page) to evs.stella@gmail.com. Do not forget to mention in the subject “EVS in Czech Republic”. If you are preselected, shortly after the deadline, you will be asked to have a skype interview with coordinating and hosting organisation.

While writing your motivation, please put strong emphasize on the understanding why EVS is important for you, why you are interested in the organisation and its activities. Deadline to apply – 10 April 2016.

Additional information about the project:

Project is uniting the field of non-formal education, social work, history and culture on one side and on the other side the European partnership of involved 13 organizations from 9 countries including the hosting country. Aim of the project is to contribute to European cooperation in the youth field through establishment of non-formal educational volunteering places/opportunities and opening space in the hosting organisations fro innovation, inspiration from abroad and new experience. Project supports motivation of young people, opening of local communities towards other cultures, strengthen positive perception of non-formal education, gaining experience and volunteering.

Objectives of the projects are:

- to involve young people from European countries in the hosting organizations
- to support mobility of young people,
- to involve in EVS young people with fewer opportunities
- to create conditions for mutual education, learning, exchange of experience and innovation between volunteers and hosting organisations
- to develop competences to be applied application in the European labour market
- to strengthen awareness and knowledge about Europe by contact with organisations' target groups and community
- to increase quality of partner organizations' work at international level
- to create a good practice of volunteers' active involvement in the life of community and organisations

Main themes: non-formal education, development of the local community, culture and intercultural learning, social work, work with children, young people and seniors, creativity, non-profit sector, active involvement.