

The 17th WIPO-WTO Colloquium 2020 for Teachers of Intellectual Property (latest news)

Given the current circumstances, the organizers have decided to extend the registration deadline till 30th March 2020.

To be considered for participation, you must complete an online application for the Colloquium through WIPO's website. To apply:

i) Create a WIPO Account and Login (https://welc.wipo.int/wipoaccounts/en/usercenter/public/register.jsf?returnURL=%2Facrp%2Fprogram%2Faip%3Fcid%3DIPCOL\_GE2020%26lang%3Den%26locale%3Den);

ii) Follow this link to the WIPO Academy's page - https://www.wipo.int/academy/en/courses/acad\_inst\_and\_startup\_academies/index.html and find the link to the Colloquium's registration page;

iii) Carefully read through the necessary information regarding 'Content'; 'Admission Requirements' and 'Scholarships' and register by uploading the documents requested – i.e. a) One-page summary and outline of proposed paper (on any topic of your choice related to IP) and b) Recent Curriculum Vitae.

Decisions regarding participants selected to attend the Colloquium will be made by a Selection Board, and only selected candidates will be subsequently contacted. There is no need for a separate application or materials in support of a scholarship application. Decisions on scholarships will be made based on the documents sought at the time of online registration. The deadline to register is 30th March, 2020. There will be no further extensions.

Both WIPO and WTO are closely monitoring current circumstances and will keep selected candidates up to date regarding the schedule of the event and related timelines.

WIPO-WTO Colloquium Team